Miss Tunstall joined the Staff of this school, as Certificated
Assistant July 2nd 1912.

She takes good interest in her work, is very attentive to her duties and conscientious in the discharge of them. I have always found her very willing and anxious to give entire satisfaction.

She has controlled a large upper division satisfactorily and taught it with very fair results. She is anxious to be near her parents who reside in East Africa.

Headmaster.

Her influence, character, & power of Miss Tunstall has had valuable experience in large up-to-date Schools in the North of England & is quite capable of firm rule both as Headmistress in a large School - or Headmistress in a good sized one.

Miss E. ECCLESTON.

Polesworth,

Tannworth

May 15th 1900

Miss Junstall taught in this school for nearly two years and it was greatly to the regret of the Managers when she resigned her position at the end of March, to accept one nearer her friends.

She is a thoroughly conscientious and successful teacher with high ideals, and we are sure that her influence among children must tend to raise their tone.

During the time she was here, she had sole charge of a large class of upper standard girls & in her management of them, gave us entire satisfaction.

Signed E. Eccleston

Corr. for Managers

Ludlow Road Girls School
Steven. Southampton.
April 1916.

Miss Tunstall has been an Assistant in the above school - a large one numbering over 500 girls - since July 1915.

During this time she has had charge of the Girls Class and has taught them with skill and ability.

She spares no pains in the preparation of her lessons, is an excellent disciplinarian and a good needlewoman.

I shall be very sorry to lose her services.

Agnes West.
(Head mistress)

April 26.
1910.

I have pleasure in stating that I have known Mary Catherine Finestall all her life; she has been thoroughly well brought up.
She is a consistent Church woman & her conduct has always been without blame: she has been accustomed to children

at home & I should think would make an Excellent School Teacher

Here. Wells
