Suspension of deferred service

29 Aug.

at previous Paper.

States that service was suspended owing to extreme pressure of fol. business on P. Tel. Co. lines. Whole question of telegraph service during the war is under consideration. It is possible that arrangements may be made for a general reduction of rates on plain language traffic.

SPO admitted to be "extreme pressure of Govt & others business on the Eastern Tel Coy's lines" Presumably there is similar pressure in other parts of the world. I call attention to this because the theory has been advanced that the various Cable Cos would be less busy than usual owing to the dislocation of business.

Noted I have been pondering the fact that the London market is very dull with little activity & volume.

Noted I have been reminded of the fact that the London market is overdone with long contracts & orders.
