I ask & say that as explained to Mr. H. H. Holiday who called here this morning, apparently after inspecting the matter with Ruby Sons & Hamble, the F.O. were inf'd on 30 June that Sgt. presumed that the Russian Govt. wd. make arrangement for some one to be sent to take charge of Dieckmann - that the matter is now presumably before the Russian Gov. - that it is understood that no.

Holliday proposed a visit today to the Russian Embassy to ascertain how the matter now stands - send copy of memo to FO in W. A. C. P.
