29 April 1919

Sir CROYDON MARKS asked the Secretary of the Exchequer whether the Scheme of the Government of British East Africa, which provides for the development of the Territory, has been approved by the Treasury, and what arrangements are being made to enable the Government to meet the extra charge of the scheme, and whether the Government are prepared to meet the extra charge of
the scheme, and whether the Government
are prepared to meet the extra charge of the scheme.

Col. Amery
~~Mr. Amery~~

The last part of the reply was settled in consultation with
Col. Amery & me, as an alternative to a suggestion that we should finance the scheme, but it has been materially altered. We did not agree to "vote" the Gov. - merely to extend ask him to extend to a scheme financially, essentially the promise to acquire land which he had - given (Gov/15201)

at all events it will not be our fault if the plan for

Dear Amery:-

I send you herewith for your information, copy of a letter sent yesterday by the Minister of Labour to Lieut. Colonel W. Hughes Ridge.

I am keeping the file containing the papers relative to this matter if you should want them at any time.

Yours ~~very truly~~
