Mr Robinson

On 6 Nov last (52776) we asked the Hospital to transfer Capt Pearce to a Convalescent Hospital, and Clock House Chelsea, where he has been since 11 Nov is I suppose, a convalescent hospital.
First write to the O in C, Clock House Chelsea, say we have recd from the W.D. a report of the M.B. held on Capt Pearce at the 3rd Lawa Genl Hospital on 11 Jan, and ask whether he is still at Clock House & if so whether he is likely to be fit to be discharged from hospital; and that it will eventually be necessary to have him examined by our M.A. as to his fitness to return to duty.

Mr. Robinson

Capt Spence (his wife) called yesterday and said that the VAD Hospital at St. Charles Chelsea no longer exists.
It is still the 3rd General Hospital and had been taken over by the authorities there that the arrangements would be made for him to return to the 3rd General Hospital (15 Feb) I told him that he could not go to that boat & that he should probably send his letters at that point

He claimed that he is entitled to his demerit pay in the 1st month here, and that he should therefore have pay during the voyage He wanted this pay paid to his wife. I told him that the usual thing was to relinquish commence (to pay) from date of sailing or from date of first boat after the office could have sailed. He did not like this, which after all, is not surprising. He wants to go back so very soon to resume his civil work

[I suggest enquiring about the gratuity as Mr Spence is remaining in England, and they seem rather alarmed at the prospect of pay rising. I did not however mention the subject at the interview.]

? inform Capt Spence that we are asking the Gov by telegraph whether his further services are required and that he will remain on leave for the present. Had enclosed £/7a for Mr Daniels to report whether he is now fit to return to C.A. (a) in a military capacity or (b) in a civilian capacity.
