

So far as I am concerned the practicality of this is very doubtful. I have not seen Mr. L. but he left a telephone message at my home address asking whether the Co. would get permission for the export of the shirts as the manufacturers said that there were difficulties in the way of this. I had a reply sent that he must write officially. I understood that nothing was said about the supply of material from our store, of which I had heard from Mr.
Bottomley. Express regret that we would be unable to accept <sup>to the</sup> ~~the~~ <sup>order</sup> ~~order~~.

23/11/14

Mr. Harcourt.

As the Cd. deprecate this.

Proceed as proposed.

Ch. 23/11/14

Very well, but make it clear that the C.A. deprecate this.

[But I don't see why the man should not get the shirts earlier as a gift. than wait for some ordinary or later issue] Ch. 23/11/14

Mr. S. G. Fuller

It appears to the S. J. S. Committee that the Store is held for the H. N. R. & W. A. F. F. jointly, while the reserve gift is asked for for the benefit of the S. J. S. Field Force generally.
If granted it would mean a considerable risk that people for whom the reserve is intended, not only in the H. N. R. but also in the W. A. F. F., might at any moment have to go short.
