Postal + Telegraph Dept
Staff Vacancies

(a) Two

Telegraph engineering assistants, temporary appointment, (b) One assistant to Chief Accountant, (c) Fourteen postal clerks and telegraphists.

Mr. Robinson

(a) + (c) were asked for in 59422

(b) is no doubt the vacancy for an Assistant Chief Accountant caused by the promotion of F. J. Balany to a 1st class Postmaster.

Justices that appear to be asked for two Telegraph Inspectors. These are not mentioned in the new telegram, but I think we may assume that the vacancies still exist.

The demobilization has now been completed I think we might write again to G.P.O. as proposed in 62124. Do not wait till the end of March.

do so, saying that a vacancy has now arisen for an Assistant Chief Accountant at 2270-13-3000

10th of Jan, I am to request you to inform the P.M.C. that vacancies are now open in the Postal and Telegraph Department

As Chief Accountant with salary

£2500 per annum for a Sub-Telegraph Inspector to be on the scale of £2000 to £2500 per annum will be glad to hear that the Government consider that it will be possible to fill any of the vacancies now

He agrees with the view expressed in the letter of the two latter officers to show that higher scales of salary need not be afforded at present.
