~~Mr. Robinson~~

I am not at all sure that Mr. Northey would wish to give Dr. & Mrs. Norris special preference over all other priority passengers, but that is what doing anything other than letting them take their journey the last would amount to. I am sure that you would be pleased to see that the Government is doing its utmost to help them. I am sure that you will be glad to see that the Government is doing its utmost to help them. I am sure that you will be glad to see that the Government is doing its utmost to help them.

Mr. B. B. B. B.

If we had a "special priority" system, I would certainly say yes. As it is, the only safe thing is to adhere rigidly to the rule & say that no amount of confusion & doubt about the allocation of the shipping, etc.

But we must also be sure that we are not "sitting on the fence" where it comes to the priority list & when they are likely to be offered in the near future.

Mr. J. J. J.

It is not a question of informality; it is a question of being in touch with the situation & being able to take your own responsibility.

Yours truly,
J. J. J.
