Mrs. J. Hastings Thomson 44695/1914.

It is with regret we venture to trouble you again in connection with the affairs of Mrs. J. Hastings Thomson. In the face of the cable letter received from her today, however, and of the destitute state in which she and her family are meantime placed, it is impossible to refrain from doing something to relieve this family. We most earnestly trust it will accord with your mind and convenience that the immediate arrangement should be made for a payment to Mrs. Thomson. However is the reason it is clear that the wife and family of a responsible servant of the Government is in a state of absolute destitution and it ought to be possible to relieve the situation and debit the Government with the cost. This is a case of undoubted hardship and we shall be much obliged if you will kindly inform us that pending investigation, some immediate relief is to be given.

We have the honour to remain, Sir,

Your obedient servants,

J. Thomson Hyslop & Dickie
