6th February, 1914.

Sir,

I am directed by the Board of Trade to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of January 29th (No. 1952/1914) respecting a draft Order in Council amending the East Africa Orders in Council of 1902 and 1908 in order to give effect to the proposal that certain powers referred to in the First Schedule to the Foreign Jurisdiction Act 1890 should be exercisable by Magistrates holding Subordinate Courts of the first class in the East Africa Protectorate.

In reply I am to state, for Mr. Harcourt's information, that the Board of Trade concur in the proposed draft Order in Council.
