Ans. 24. 21 April '15

Both the letters - 1852 - should have gone before.
A/c: & a/c: copy of the letter of 15 Decr, received at the same time as the letter of 11 Jan: of which we sent a copy, & say that it shows that Capt. Salkeld's recollections was that a certain amount of the loan had been raised by the sale of animals of the caravan, and the proceeds credited to the District Officer.
[Capt. S. is still at home - but it is not likely that he can add anything]
