With reference to my Confidential despatch No. 40 of April 3rd relating to Mr. N. Mack Piore, Junior Staff Surveyor, I have the honour to inform you that it is not necessary to appoint a successor to that officer, and to recommend that Mr. N. Neil Law be promoted to fill the vacancy.

2. Mr. Law is second on the list of Assistant Junior Staff Surveyors, Mr. Taggitt being first; but the Director of Surveys is unable to recommend the latter for promotion as he states that he is unlikely ever to be capable of more intricate work than construction.

3. Should my proposal meet with your approval, it will be necessary to appoint an Assistant Junior Staff Surveyor to succeed Mr. Law and I shall be glad if the Crown Agents may be instructed accordingly.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your humble, obedient servant,

DIRECTOR OF SURVEYS
