We are asking for some legal advice in the case of a man who wishes to import wallaby skins from S. Africa & has applied to the Straits Settlements guarantee.

If we had to guarantee and think he would do a model which does not have also to leave Jamaica (this is of the Straits Settlements guarantee at elaborate discussions itself).

[?] And like a copy of the guarantee also that it be known?

Re: 16 DECEMBER 13th, 1915.

In consideration of His Majesty's Government consenting to the shipment to us of Mangrove Bark or Wattle Bark from British Africa & Jamaica, we hereby give the following undertaking, which shall remain in force so long as Great Britain is at war:

We undertake not to dispose of any Mangrove Bark or Wattle Bark which we may import from British Possessions, Protectorates or Protected States or Tanning Extracts made therefrom otherwise than by sale to manufacturers in the United States or Canada who will use them solely for their own manufacturing purposes.

We undertake not to export directly or indirectly to enemy countries or to neutral countries in Europe or to sell to others without satisfying ourselves that they will not export or sell nor export directly or indirectly to such countries any other materials for tanning or dressing of leather which may be in or may come to our possession.

THE HALKY+HAMMOND COMPANY,

(signed)

President.

James J. Carpenter,
Secretary.

undertaken and signed at the British Consulate General at New York City, U.S.A., this twelfth day of November A.D.
1915. Before me,

(signed) John Greenop
