AGREEMENT WITH NATIONAL BANK OF INDIA.

1) Crown Agts ----- 2nd June 1926.

Encloses for approval, copy of draft instruments of agreements in respect of (A) Govt of Kenya and (B) The High Commr for Transport.

Crown Agreement

The has been compared with the 1910 Agreement & it varies at (so far as I can judge from the extracts) in so far as in the Schedule in 3590c/25 the "Security" clauses being omitted, a no specific stipulation is made they have "power to persons" in clause 3, & "persons or persons" in clause 12.

Transport Agreement

It follows the draft in 4742 but the Bank has accepted the amendments proposed by the Govt Warader in 3593/25 in the Bramble clauses 8 & 9.

The variations at A above appear in the similar clauses of this agreement.
There are no marked notes to clauses 7, 10 & 12. - No mark of name are written either in draft!

An Agreement

made this

Sixth day of July One

thousand nine hundred and twenty six
 Between The Crown Agents for the Colonies of 44 Hillbank in the City of Westminster(hereinafter referred to as 'the Crown Agents') acting for and on behalf of the Government of the Colony and Protectorate
 of Kenya (hereinafter referred to as 'the Government') of the one part and The National Bank of India Limited whose registered office is at
 No 26 Bishopsgate in the City of London(hereinafter called 'the Bank') of the other part.

Whereby it is agreed as follows:

1. This Agreement shall be deemed to come into operation and take effect as on and from the first day of August One thousand nine hundred and twenty six and shall continue in force until it shall be determined under the provisions hereinafter contained.
2. The Bank shall from time to time, and at all times during the continuance of this Agreement transact all such banking business of the Government as the Bank may from time to time be required by the Government to transact, and except in any case in which and to such extent as any charge is hereby expressly authorised no charge shall be made by the Bank for transacting such business during every period during which the balances standing to the credit of the current account of the Government at the London Office of the Bank and at its Branches in the Colony and Protectorate shall amount in the aggregate to the sum of Two hundred thousand shillings such current accounts being

Bank to transact Government
banking business without charge except in certain cases

(except where the context otherwise requires) hereinafter collectively referred to as 'the current account'.

Bank to hold the current account with monies, and to have cheques drawn by duly authorised persons.

3. The Bank shall receive and place to the credit of the current account of the Government at the Office in the Colony and Protectorate where the same shall be paid all moneys which shall be paid into the Bank by or for the account of the Government and which shall be legal tender at the place where the same shall be so paid and such moneys if paid into any Office of the Bank in the Colony and Protectorate shall be credited to the Government at the current rate of exchange for the time being. Subject to the provisions of this agreement the Bank shall pay on presentation at par at any office of the Bank in the Colony and Protectorate or at the London Office all cheques drawn on any current account of the Government by any person or persons duly authorised in writing by the Government to draw against such account.

Interest on balance of current account.

4. During every period during which the balance standing to the credit of the Government on the current account shall for the time being exceed the sum of Two hundred thousand shillings the Bank shall pay or allow to the Government interest at the rate of Two and a half per cent per annum on the total amount of the balance on current account.

Bank to allow overdrafts not exceeding £2,000.

5. The Bank shall from time to time and, at any time during the continuance of this Agreement advance to the Government such sums by way of overdraft on the current account of the Government at any of the Offices of the Bank as the Government may from time to time demand. Provided that the aggregate of such advances for the time being remaining unpaid shall not at any one time exceed the sum of Two hundred thousand shillings but within such limit as aforesaid the Bank shall not during the continuance of this agreement be entitled to require any such advances to be repaid the Government nevertheless being at liberty to repay all or any part of the same as and when they may think fit. And the Government shall pay interest at the rate of five per cent per annum on the amount of such advances for the time being owing by them on the said overdraft if any.

Interest to be debited or credited to current account half yearly.

All sums payable by the Government to the Bank or by the Bank to the Government under any of the provisions hereinbefore contained shall be debited or credited (as the case may be) to the current account half yearly on the thirtieth day of June and the thirty first day of December in each year and when so debited or credited shall be taken into account in calculating the balance of the Government for the time being on the current account.

Rules for keeping the current account.

7. The Bank shall transact all business connected with the current account in accordance with such rules as may be mutually agreed upon between the Government and the Bank.

Bank to receive money on deposit account and pay interest thereon.

8. The Bank shall receive from the Government on deposit account all such sums as the Government may from time to time pay to it for that purpose and shall hold all such sums subject to withdrawal at call or on such notice (being either seven days or longer) or on fixed deposit for such period as may be specified by the Government at the time of the payment being made. The Bank shall allow to the Government on all sums so placed on deposit account interest at such rate as shall in each case be agreed upon between the Government and the Bank but in no case shall it be less favourable than the highest rate granted by the Bank to other customers. If the Government so desire the Bank will allow advances on current account against the security of fixed deposits and up to the amount of the same. In such cases the rate of interest will be one per cent higher than the rate of interest granted on the fixed deposit against which the advances on current account are made.

^{Interest on} ⁹ All sums to be allowed by the Bank to the Government by way of interest on deposit account under the provisions of the last preceding Clause shall be credited to the said deposit account of the Government half yearly on the thirtieth day of June and the thirty first day of December in each year, and shall be taken into account in calculating the balance of the Government on deposit account for the time being and shall carry interest accordingly.

^{Remittances or} ¹⁰ Whenever the Government desires to avail itself of the services of the Bank for the remittance of funds to or from the Colony and Protectorate the Bank shall undertake and transact the business of such remittance and transfer and shall be remunerated for transacting the same at a rate of payment more favourable for the Government by one eighth per cent of the amount of the moneys so remitted or transferred than the terms on which the Bank shall for the time being be transacting similar business for its most favoured customer. Transfers and remittances shall be made at the option of the Government either by the issue of Bank Drafts for the amount or by telegram or letter directing the amount to be placed to the credit of the Government or its nominees at the place to or at which the remittance or transfer is to be made. The Bank will at the request of the Government transfer funds from any office in the Colony and Protectorate to any other office in the Colony and Protectorate free of all charge, subject to the proviso that if this arrangement entails a movement of notes or coin the Government will grant free transport for the same all other charges such as insurance etc, and all risk in connection with the transfer of funds will be borne by the Bank.

^{Bank to render} ¹¹ The Bank from time to time and at any time accounts to at its own expense shall render to the Government or the Crown Agents all such information accounts and returns relative to the current and deposit accounts and to the business of the Government, and to the rates of interest for the time being charged or allowed by the Bank to its customers in any of the cases hereinbefore mentioned and to any other matter in anywise connected with this Agreement as the Government or the Crown Agents may require and shall verify such information accounts and returns in such manner as the Government or the Crown Agents may reasonably require.

^{Bank not to} ¹² The Bank shall not assign or otherwise dispose of this Agreement or any part thereof or any interest therein or sublet any of the services to be rendered to any persons or person or to any other Company without the previous permission of the Government certified in writing under the hand of the Crown Agents or of the Governor of the Colony and Protectorate and such permission may be withheld without any reason being assigned therefor or may be granted upon such terms and subject to such conditions certified as aforesaid as the Government may think fit and no such assignment disposition or sub letting shall in any way exonerate the Bank from any liability under this Agreement.

Government to determine termination condition of the Bank etc.</sup>

13 If an Order shall be made by a Court of competent jurisdiction or an effective resolution shall be passed for the winding up of the Bank or if the Bank shall at any time commit any breach of this Agreement or shall cease to carry on banking business at Nairobi the Government may by notice in writing to the Bank forthwith determine this Agreement, and the same shall accordingly immediately upon the giving of such notice be determined.

either party to determine Agreement
on notice</sup>

14 The Government may at any time by giving to the Bank three calendar months' previous notice in writing and the Bank may, at any time by giving to the Government six calendar months previous notice in writing determine this Agreement and neither party shall be bound to assign any reason therefor and upon the expiration of either of such notices this Agreement shall be determined.

^{Notices}

15 Any notice to the Bank under or in connection with this Agreement may be given by leaving the same addressed to the Bank at its principal Office in the Colony and Protectorate or at its Registered Office in England and every such notice shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be so left. Any notice, authority or other act of or on the part of the Government under or in connection with this Agreement shall be sufficient and binding on the parties hereto if the same be in writing and signed by the Governor for the time being of the Colony and Protectorate or by one of the Crown Agents.

<sup>Personal Secretary to Colonies

shall any member or officer of the Government or any of the Crown Agents be in Office</sup>

16 His Majesty's Secretary of State for the Colonies shall not nor shall any member or officer of the Government or any of the Crown Agents be in any way personally liable for or in respect of any ~~of~~ the acts or obligations of the Government under this Agreement or be otherwise however subjected to any personal liability under or by virtue of this Agreement.

<sup>This Agreement to be an English
Agreement</sup>

17 This Agreement shall be deemed an English Agreement and shall accordingly be construed and carried into effect according to the law for the time being in force in England.

agreement</sup>

18 Upon the execution of this agreement the provisions of an agreement dated the seventh day of April One thousand nine hundred and ten between Reginald Laurence Antrobus Esquire, C.B., Maurice Alexander Cameron, C.M.G., late Major in His Majesty's Corps of Royal Engineers and William Hepworth Mercer, Esquire, C.M.G., all of Whitehall Gardens in the City of Westminster, the Crown Agents for the Colonies acting for and on behalf of the Government of the East African Protectorate of the one part and the National Bank of India of the other part shall cease to have effect save as regards any rights or obligations accrued prior to the execution of these presents.

An Agreement

made this
 sixth day of July one
 thousand nine hundred and twenty six
 Between The Crown Agents for the Colonies of St. Millbank in the City of Westminster (hereinafter referred to as the
 'Crown Agents') acting for and on behalf of the High Commissioner for Transport for the Colony and Protectorate of Kenya and the Protectorate of Uganda (hereinafter referred to as the High Commissioner) of the one part and the National Bank of India Limited whose registered office is situated at 26, Bishopsgate, E.C. 2 in the City of London (hereinafter called the 'Bank') of the other part.

Whereby it is agreed as follows:-

1. This Agreement shall be deemed to come into operation and take effect as on and from the first day of August one thousand nine hundred and twenty six and shall continue in force until it shall be determined under the provisions hereinafter contained.
- Agreement to operate from 2. The Bank shall from time to time and at all General business times during the continuance of this agreement transact all such banking business of the High Commissioner as the Bank may from time to time be required by the High Commissioner to transact and except in any case in which and to such extent as any charge so hereby expressly authorized no charge shall be made by the Bank for transacting such business during every period during which the balances standing to the credit of the current account of the High Commissioner at the London Office of the Bank and its branches in the Colony shall amount or the aggregate to the sum of Two hundred thousand shillings - £10,000 - such current accounts being (except where the context otherwise requires) hereinafter collectively referred to as "the current account."

³ Bank to credit the current account with monies paid and to honour cheques drawn by duly authorised persons. The Bank shall receive and place to the credit of the current account of the High Commissioner at the office where the same shall be paid into the Bank by or for the account of the High Commissioner all monies which shall be legal tender at the place where the same shall be so paid and such monies if paid into any office of the Bank in the Colony and Protectorate of Kenya and the Protectorate of Uganda shall be credited to the High Commissioner at the current rate of exchange for the time being. Subject to the provisions of this agreement the Bank shall pay on presentation at par at any Office of the Bank in the Colony and Protectorate of Kenya and Protectorate of Uganda all cheques drawn on any current account of the High Commissioner by any person or persons duly authorised in writing by the High Commissioner to draw against such account.

⁴ Interest on balance of current account. During every period during which the balance standing to the credit of the High Commissioner on the current account shall for the time being exceed the sum of shillings 200,000 the Bank shall pay or allow to the High Commissioner interest at the rate of two and a half per cent per annum on the total amount of the balance on current account.

⁵ Bank to allow advances by way of overdraft during the continuance of this agreement to the High Commissioner such sums by way of over-draft on the current account of the High Commissioner at any of the offices of the Bank as the High Commissioner may from time to time demand. Provided that the aggregate of such advances for the time being remaining unpaid shall not at any one time exceed the sum of shillings 200,000 but within such limit as aforesaid the Bank shall not during the continuance of this agreement be entitled to require any such advances to be repaid, the High Commissioner nevertheless being at liberty to repay all, or any part of the same as and when he may think fit. And the High Commissioner shall pay interest at the rate of five per cent per annum on the amount of such advances for the time being owing by him on the said over draft if any.

⁶ All sums payable by the High Commissioner to the Bank or by the Bank to the High Commissioner by the High Commissioner to Bank or Banks under any of the provisions hereinbefore contained to be included in shall be debited or credited (as the case may be) to half yearly balance the current account half yearly on the thirtieth day of June and the thirty first day of December in each year, and when so debited or credited shall be taken into account in calculating the balance of the High Commissioner for the time being on the current account.

⁷ Rules for keeping the current account. The Bank shall transact all business connected with the current account in accordance with such rules as may be mutually agreed upon between the High Commissioner and the Bank.

⁸ Deposit accounts and rates of interest thereon. The Bank shall receive from the High Commissioner on fixed deposit all such sums as the High Commissioner may from time to time pay to it for that purpose. The period of fixed deposits shall be for six months or such longer period as the High

Commissioner may desire. The Bank shall allow to the High Commissioner, on all sums so placed on fixed deposit interest at such rate as shall in each case be agreed upon between the High Commissioner and the Bank, but in no case shall it be less favourable than the highest rate granted by the Bank to other customers. If the High Commissioner so desire the Bank will allow advances on current account against the security of fixed deposits, and up to the amount of the same. In such cases the rate of interest will be one per cent higher than the rate of interest granted on the fixed deposit against which the advances on current account are made.

9. All sums to be allowed by the Bank to the High Commissioner by way of interest on fixed deposit accounts under the provision of the last preceding clause shall be credited as each fixed deposit matures, either to the current account of the High Commissioner or shall be added to the fixed deposit when it is desired to renew the same for a further period.

10. Transfer of Funds. The Bank will at the request of the High Commissioner transfer funds from any office in Kenya to any other office in Kenya and from any office in Uganda to any other office in Uganda free of all charge. The Bank will at the request of the High Commissioner transfer funds from any office in Uganda to any office in Kenya and from any office in Kenya to Uganda free of all charge subject to the proviso that if this arrangement entails the movement of notes or coin the High Commissioner will grant free transport for the same. All other charges such as insurance etcetera and all risks in connection with the transfer of funds will be borne by the Bank. The Bank will if desired by the High Commissioner make settling remittances on his behalf, either by the issue of Bank drafts or by letter or telegram. In such cases the rates of charge will in each case be agreed upon by the High Commissioner and the Bank. The rates shall always be more favourable to the High Commissioner by at least one eighth per cent than the rate quoted to the Banks most favoured customer.

11. Information to be supplied relating at its own expense shall render to the High Commissioner or the Crown Agents all such information to the business of the High Commissioner or the Crown Agents, all such information accounts, and returns relative to the current and deposit accounts and remittance business of the High Commissioner, and to the rates of interest for the time being charged or allowed by the Bank to its customers in any of the cases hereinbefore mentioned, and to any other matter in anywise connected with this agreement as the High Commissioner or the Crown Agents may require, and shall verify such information, accounts and returns in such manner as the High Commissioner or the Crown Agents may reasonably require.

12. Assignment or disposal of agreement. The Bank shall not assign a mortgage, sublet or otherwise dispose of this agreement or any part hereof, or any interest therein, or sub let any of the services to be rendered to any persons or person or to any other company without the previous permission of the High Commissioner certified in writing under the hand of the Crown Agents or of the High Commissioner, and such permission may be withheld without any revisor being assigned therefor or may be granted upon such terms, and subject to such conditions certified as aforesaid as the High Commissioner may think fit, and no such assignment disposition or sub-letting shall in any way exonerate the Bank from any liability under this agreement.

13. If an order shall be made by a Court of competent jurisdiction or an effective resolution shall be passed for the winding up of the Bank, or if the Bank shall at any time commit any breach of this agreement, or shall cease to carry on banking business at Nairobi, the High Commissioner may by notice in writing to the Bank forthwith determine this agreement and the same shall accordingly, immediately upon the giving of such notice, be determined.

14. Notice to Bank. The High Commissioner may at any time, in connection with this agreement, by giving to the Bank three calendar months' previous notice in writing and the Bank may at any time, by giving to the High Commissioner six calendar months' previous notice in writing, determine this agreement, and neither party shall be bound to assign any reason therefor, and upon the expiration of either of such notice this agreement shall be determined.

15. Address to which notice in connection with this agreement may be given by this agreement leaving the same addressed to the Bank at its principal office in Nairobi in the Colony, or at its Registered Office in England and every such notice shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be so left. Any notice authority or other act of, or on the part of, the High Commissioner under or in connection with this agreement shall be sufficient and binding on the parties hereto, if the same be in writing and signed by the High Commissioner or by one of the Crown Agents.

16. Cessation of previous agreement. Upon the execution of this agreement the provisions of an agreement dated the seventh April, one thousand nine hundred and ten, between Reginald Lawrence Antrobus Esquire, C.B. Maurice Alexander Cameron, C.M.G., late major in His Majesty's Corps of Royal Engineers and William Hepworth Mercer Esquire, C.M.G., all of Whitehall Gardens in the City of Westminster, the Crown Agents for the Colonies acting for and on behalf of the Government of the East African Protectorate of the one part, and the National Bank of India of the other part shall so far as it concerns the Administration of the Uganda Railway cease to have effect save as regards any rights or obligations accrued prior to the execution of these presents.

17. No personal liability to Secretary of State, Commissioners or Officer of the High Commissioner, or any of the Crown Agents, be in any way personally liable for, or in respect of, any of the acts or obligations of the High Commissioner under this agreement, or be otherwise howsoever subjected to any personal liability under or by virtue of this agreement.

18. This agreement to be an English Agreement. This agreement shall be deemed an English Agreement, and shall accordingly be construed and carried into effect according to the law for the time being in force in England.

19. Marginal notes. The marginal notes hereto are for the purpose of convenience only and shall not affect the interpretation of the Agreement.

In witness whereof one of the Crown
Agents has hereunto set his hand and seal,
and the Bank have hereunto caused their common seal to be affixed the day and year before mentioned.

persons
The Bank shall receive and place to the credit of the current account of the High Commissioner of the office where the same shall be paid into the Bank by or for the account of the High Commissioner all monies which shall be legal tender at the place where the same shall be so paid and such monies if paid into any office of the Bank in the Colony and Protectorate of Kenya and the Protectorate of Uganda shall be credited to the High Commissioner at the current rate of exchange for the time being. Subject to the provisions of this agreement the Bank shall pay on presentation at par at any Office of the Bank in the Colony and Protectorate of Kenya and Protectorate of Uganda all cheques drawn on any current account of the High Commissioner by any person or persons duly authorised in writing by the High Commissioner to draw against such account.

4. Interest on balance of current account
During every period during which the balance standing to the credit of the High Commissioner on the current account shall for the time being exceed the sum of shillings 200,000 the Bank shall pay or allow to the High Commissioner interest at the rate of two and a half per cent per annum on the total amount of the balance on current account.

5. Bank to allow advances by way of over-draft
in a manner herein described
The Bank shall from time to time and at any time during the continuance of this agreement allow to the High Commissioner such sums by way of over-draft on the current account of the High Commissioner at any of the offices of the Bank, as the High Commissioner may from time to time demand. Provided that the aggregate of such advances for the time being remaining unpaid shall not at any one time exceed the sum of shillings 200,000 but within such limit as aforesaid the Bank shall not during the continuance of this agreement be entitled to require any such advances to be repaid, the High Commissioner nevertheless being at liberty to repay all or any part of the same as and when he may think fit. And the High Commissioner shall pay interest at the rate of five per cent per annum, on the amount of such advances for the time being owing by him on the said over draft if any.

6. All sums payable by the High Commissioner to the Bank, or by the Bank to the High Commissioner Commissioner to Bank or Banks to under any of the provisions heretofore contained the High Commissioner to be included in shall be debited or credited (as the case may be) to half yearly balance the current account half yearly, on the thirtieth day of June and the thirty first day of December in each year, and when so debited or credited shall be taken into account in calculating the balance of the High Commissioner for the time being on the current account.

7. Rules for keeping the current account.
The Bank shall transact all business connected with the current account in accordance with such rules as may be mutually agreed upon between the High Commissioner and the Bank.

8. Deposit accounts and rate of interest thereon
The Bank shall receive from the High Commissioner on fixed deposit all such sums as the High Commissioner may from time to time pay to it for that purpose. The period of fixed deposit shall be for six months or such longer period as the High

Commissioner may desire. The Bank shall allow to the High Commissioner, on all sums so placed on fixed deposit interest at such rate as shall, in each case be agreed upon between the High Commissioner and the Bank, but in no case shall it be less favourable than the highest rate granted by the Bank to other customers. If the High Commissioner so desire the Bank will allow advances on current account against the security of fixed deposits, and up to the amount of the same. In such cases the rate of interest will be one per cent higher than the rate of interest granted on the fixed deposit against which the advances on current account are made.

9. <sup>Deposit interest and rules for crediting interest</sup> All sums to be allowed by the Bank to the High Commissioner by way of interest on fixed deposit accounts under the provision of the last preceding clause shall be credited, as each fixed deposit matures, either to the current account of the High Commissioner or shall be added to the fixed deposit when it is desired to renew the same for a further period.

10. <sup>Transfer of Funds</sup> The Bank will at the request of the High Commissioner transfer funds from any office in Kenya to any other office in Kenya and from any office in Uganda to any other office in Uganda free of all charge. The Bank will at the request of the High Commissioner transfer funds from any office in Uganda to any office in Kenya and from any office in Kenya to Uganda free of all charge subject to the proviso that if this arrangement entails the movement of notes or coin the High Commissioner will grant free transport for the same. All other charges such as insurance etcetera and all risks in connection with the transfer of funds will be borne by the Bank. The Bank will at desire by the High Commissioner make sterling remittances on his behalf either by the issue of Bank drafts or by letter or telegram. In such cases the rates of charge will in each case be agreed upon by the High Commissioner and the Bank. The rates shall always be more favourable to the High Commissioner by at least one eighth per cent than the rate granted to the Banks most favoured customer.

11. Information to be supplied relating at its own expense shall render to the High Commissioner or the Crown Agents all such information, accounts, and returns relative to the current and deposit accounts and remittance business of the High Commissioner, and to the rates of interest for the time being charged or allowed by the Bank to its customers in any of the cases hereinbefore mentioned, and to any other matter in anywise connected with this agreement as the High Commissioner or the Crown Agents may require and shall verify such information, accounts and returns, in such manner as the High Commissioner or the Crown Agents may reasonably require.

12. Assignment or

The Bank shall not assign, mortgage, sublet or otherwise dispose of this agreement or any part thereof, or any interest therein, or sub let any of the services to be rendered to any persons or person or to any other Company without the previous permission of the High Commissioner certified in writing under the hand of the Crown Agents or of the High Commissioner, and such permission may be withheld without any reason being assigned therefor, or may be granted upon such terms, and subject to such condition, certified as aforesaid as the High Commissioner may think fit, and no such assignment, disposition or sub letting shall in any way exonerate the Bank from any liability under this agreement.

13. If an order shall be made by a Court of competent jurisdiction or an effective resolution shall be passed for the winding up of the Bank or if the Bank shall at any time commit any breach of this agreement, or shall cease to carry on banking business at Nairobi, the High Commissioner may by notice in writing to the Bank forthwith determine this agreement and the same shall accordingly, immediately upon the giving of such notice, be determined.

14. Notice to Bank. The High Commissioner may at any time, in connection with this agreement by giving to the Bank three calendar months' previous notice in writing and the Bank may at any time, by giving to the High Commissioner six calendar months' previous notice in writing, determine this agreement, and neither party shall be bound to assign any reason therefor, and upon the expiration of either of such notice, this agreement shall be determined.

15. Any notice to the Bank under or in connection with this agreement may be given by leaving the same addressed to the Bank at its principal office in Nairobi in the Colony, or at its Registered Office in England and every such notice shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be so left. Any notice authority or other act of, or on the part of, the High Commissioner under or in connection with this agreement shall be sufficient and binding on the parties hereto, if the same be in writing and signed by the High Commissioner or by one of the Crown Agents.

16. Cessation of previous agreement. Upon the execution of this agreement the provisions of an agreement dated the seventh April, one thousand nine hundred and ten, between Reginald Lawrence Autobees Esquire, C.B. Maurice Alexander Cameron, C.M.G., late major in His Majesty's Corps of Royal Engineers and William Hepworth Mercer Esquire, C.M.G., all of Whitehall Gardens in the City of Westminster, the Crown Agents for the Colonies acting for and on behalf of the Government of the East African Protectorate of the one part and the National Bank of India of the other part shall so far as it concerns the Administration of the Uganda Railway cease to have effect save as regards any rights or obligations accrued prior to the execution of these presents.

17. His Majesty's Secretary of State for the Colonies, shall not, nor shall the High Commissioner or any Secretary of State, or any of the Crown Agents, be in any way personally liable for or in respect of any of the acts or obligations of the High Commissioner under this agreement, or be otherwise however subjected to any personal liability under or by virtue of this agreement.

18. This Agreement to be an English Agreement. This agreement shall be deemed an English Agreement, and shall accordingly be construed and carried into effect according to the law for the time being in force in England.

19. Marginal notes. The marginal notes hereto are for the purpose of convenience only and shall not affect

the interpretation of the Agreement.

In witness whereof one of the Crown
Agents has hereunto set his hand and seal,
and the Bank have hereunto caused their
common seal to be affixed the day and year
before mentioned.

An Agreement made this day of One thousand nine hundred and twenty Between The Crown Agents for the Colonies of 4 Millbank in the City of Westminster hereinafter referred to as "the Crown Agents", acting for and on behalf
of the Government of the Colony and Protectorate
of Kenya (hereinafter referred to as "the Government") of the one part and The National Bank of India Limited whose registered office is at
No 26 Bishopsgate in the City of London (hereinafter called "the Bank") of the other part.

Whereby it is agreed as follows:

1. This Agreement shall be deemed to come into operation and take effect as on and from the day of One thousand nine hundred and twenty and shall continue in force until it shall be determined under the provisions hereinafter contained.

2. The Bank shall from time to time, and at all times during the continuance of this Agreement transact all such banking business of the Government as the Bank may from time to time be required by the Government to transact, and except in any case in which, and to such extent as any charge is hereby expressly authorised, no charge shall be made by the Bank for transacting such business during every period during which the balances standing to the credit of the current account of the Government at the London Office of the Bank and at its Branches in the Colony and Protectorate shall amount, in the aggregate to the sum of Two hundred thousand shillings, such current accounts being persons.

3. The Bank shall receive and place to the credit of the current account of the Government at the Office where the same shall be paid all moneys which shall be paid into the Bank by or for the account of the Government and which shall be legal tender at the place where the same shall be so paid and such moneys if paid into any Office of the Bank in the Colony and Protectorate shall be credited to the Government at the current rate of exchange for the time being. Subject to the provisions of this agreement the Bank shall pay on presentation at par at any office of the Bank in the colony and Protectorate or at the London Office all cheques drawn on any current account of the Government by any person or persons duly authorised in writing by the Government to draw against such account.

current account

4. During every period during which the balance standing to the credit of the Government on the current account shall for the time being exceed the sum of Two hundred thousand shillings the Bank shall pay or allow to the Government interest at the rate of Five and a half per cent per annum on the total amount of the balance on current account.

Bank to allow overdraft not exceeding
Rs. 30000/-

5. The Bank shall from time to time and, at any time, during the continuance of this Agreement advance to the Government such sums by way of overdraft on the current account of the Government at any of the Offices of the Bank as the Government may from time to time demand. Provided that the aggregate of such advances for the time being, remaining unpaid shall not at any one time exceed the sum of Two hundred thousand shillings but, within such limit as aforesaid the Bank shall not during the continuance of this agreement be entitled to require any such advances to be repaid the Government nevertheless being at liberty to repay all or any part of the same as and when they may think fit. And the Government shall pay interest at the rate of five per cent per annum on the amount of such advances for the time being owing by them on the said overdraft if any.

Interest to be debited or credited to current account
half yearly

6. All sums payable by the Government to the Bank or by the Bank to the Government under any of the provisions hereinbefore contained shall be debited or credited (as the case may be) to the current account half yearly on the thirtieth day of June, and the thirty first day of December, in each year and when so debited or credited shall be taken into account in calculating the balance of the Government for the time being on the current account.
