the Dept of the 6th of May regarding the removal of "Indemnity" in the E.O.P. I am directed to inform you that the order has not yet been received, ~~for some~~ but that it will be forwarded by the Dept. in due course like all other orders, when the time of the advice to be tendered to His Majesty in respect of it will be considered

In the meantime the Gov. ~~has~~ reported that the Order is not aimed against the Indian community, but was framed primarily to enable the Gov. to deal with persons who were removed from Canada under Sec. 5 of "The Immigration, Restriction & Removal of Undesirable Persons Act, 1913" that Part that section reads as follows "Any person within the Prot. & not being a native of the Prot. who for any official reason, is deemed by the Gov. to be an undesirable may be ordered by the Gov. to remove himself from the Prot. within a date to be fixed in the Order."
