Cattle Trade with Abyssinia.

Sends rep. p. Adis Ababa enclosing report by Lord Cranworth resp. possibilities of -

Sir G. Fiddes.

This is a very useful report, from the political as well as from the trading point of view. It does Lord Cranworth credit.

It would be very useful to Sir P. Girouard as an unofficial supplement to the official report which Mr Sturdy will furnish to him.

I would send the report, in a confidential despatch, a copy of $\frac{F.O.}{314}$ (without the sub-enclosure $\frac{F.O.}{645}$ & our reply, & of this letter & its enclosure, for his information; & say that
