Sealed info will be furnished. Suggest that various matters in dispute should remain over pending return of Col Owen
Thomas whose expects in London in June or July.

Sir G. Fisher

Sir P. J. express that it will be better to wait for Col. Owen Thomas;
in fact to consider it absolutely necessary to do so. Sir P. G. will be in London June & July.
Concern is the suggestion that matters
of this remain in abeyance until the return of Col. Thomas, but say that we think that every effort should be made to ensure that Col. Thomas will be here in June so that there may be no gap of the go. having left the country before Col. Thomas arrives?

Sir:

I beg to acknowledge receipt of your letter No. ⁴⁹⁰²4902/1912 of the 12th March, which has been laid before my Board.

They instruct me to say that the details you mention shall be prepared and confirmed as required. When these particulars are completed they will be forwarded to you.

My Directors also instruct me to suggest that the discussion of the various matters in connection with the Lease should remain in abeyance until the return of our General Manager, Colonel Owen Thomas, who is expected in London, in June of July, when the various questions could be gone into. They think this course would facilitate negotiations and trust it will meet with your approval.

I am,

Sir,

Your obedient servant,

THE EAST AFRICAN ESTATES LIMITED.

The Under Secretary of State.
For the Colonies.
