(1705) As the Governor anticipates that the assessment will be completed in about two months, and that he will then be a position to make proposals for a final settlement, it does not seem that the Municipality will suffer very much hardship by not continuing as at present until the proposals are approved. If things remain in statu quo we are more likely to have the assessment and the proposals expedited.

before the Governor by telegram that as he anticipates that the assessment will be finished at the early date there does not appear to be any necessity
