Mr. J. J. & Mr. Raymond called today & pressed for a reply. I explained that the Govt. had been out of reach of the telegraph, but said that, in deference to their representations as to the prejudice

His late Most Gracious Majesty, King Edward the Seventh to the London & South African Agency Company Limited.
Leases of Land in the Province of Seydlie.

We thank you for your communication of yesterday's date relating to this matter. We may point out that in our last letter to you we suggested, in order to save double transfers, that you should present to the above being transferred direct to Mr. Raymond's nominee, who will be a Company duly incorporated under the Companies (Consolidation) Act 1908 and who it is contemplated will work the properties.

We are, your Lordship's, most obedient servants,
