Here the Governor told us that the Europeans were for moving the Bazaar; that the Indians were for extending it; that the latter showed the importance of giving municipal funds at once in order that the site might be acquired by it; and that Mr. Williams, the Sanitary expert who went out in 1907, was strongly in favour of moving the Bazaar. The Government of course is doing as it can.

The Government is the least of a responsible municipality is gradually coming nearer, and that the extension of the town is being completed, and a Sanitary expert is now on his way out. The

No. 101. Opportunity of offer to acquire from Grogan suitable site for extension of Indian Bazaar Nairobi.
He has advertised area in question for sale June 11th but will let government have an option and postpone sale. Request sanction to secure option cost to be met from savings. Regret necessity for telegram but no time for detailed proposals by despatch and unless am authorised to negotiate we shall lose excellent opportunity of remedying one of the serious defects in laying out the town.
