Then the Governor told us that the Europeans were for moving the Bazaar that the Indians were for extending it: that the latter showed the importance of giving municipal job to some in order that the site might be captured by it: and that his own, the sanitary expert who went out in 1907, was strongly in favour of moving the Bazaar and - for economy - of doing so at once.

The main advantage of a responsible municipality is gradually coming nearer, and that the improvement of the town is being completed and a further step is in the way, out the

No. 101. Opportunity of offer to acquire from Grogan suitable site for extension of Indian Bazaar Nairobi.
He has advertised area in question for sale June 11th but will let government have an option and postpone sale. Request sanction to secure option cost to be met from savings. Regret necessity for telegram but no time for detailed proposals by despatch and unless authorized to negotiate we shall lose excellent opportunity of remedying one of the serious defects in laying out the town.
