Dr. J. Anderson

We have had no part in the advisory service of the Post for the financial year or for the previous year. In 1912-13 we had a special fund for budget of £23,500, but the Treasury refused to make any grant for the purpose. We may assume that any further expenditure required in the commission will have to be met without Enslin's aid.

I do not see why the Post should not be treated as self-supporting & allowed to frame its budget in the

to the Treasury<sup>from</sup> which you will see that I have endorsed your recommendations.

At the same time for the seasons explained in that it desirable to make at once so large an addition to the staff immediately as you propose, & the new officers, with therefore, subject to the approval of

of the <sup>state</sup> ~~in~~ ~~the~~ ~~amount~~ being given by the L. C., 163 intervals, extending detachments over a period of approximately 12 months.

 as modified in this letter on the understanding that the necessary funds for its increased establishment will

It is to be noted that he may have as long notice as possible of the members

 Mr. Harcourt will be glad to Service Officer (Lieutenant Aylmer) formerly detailed for duty in the Northern Frontier District.

The Governor has proposed to increase this total to 120 made up as follows:-

- 6 Provincial Commissioners
- 43 District Commissioners
- 77 Assistant District Commissioners

3. Mr. Hancock recognizes that so large an increase in the Administrative staff of the P.T.S. is unusual, but the Governor has put forward

~~a carefully considered case~~ ~~in support of his proposals,~~ circumstances explained in the Governor's carefully reasoned dispatch appear to him to justify the <sup>159</sup> proposals submitted.

He feels that he must recommendations in their entirety. At the same time he is anxious to keep the expenditure of the P.T.S. within the limits imposed by the half-shilling principle. He proposes therefore to make these additions to the Staff gradually without only a comparatively small sum may have to be found during the current financial year from savings, ~~and~~
