DISTURBANCES ON S. ABYSSINIAN FRONTIER

1913

The copy of telegram from Addis Ababa stating that according to an Abyssinian Report nine Tigreans have been killed on the British side of the frontier by Capt Barrett's force and that if correct their countrymen will try to take revenge. Telegram also advises strengthening of forces on frontier. It has been repeated to E. Africa.

Sir G. Fiddes

We seem to be getting some of our own back & I am glad to see that Capt B. is taking a strong line. Mr. Thompson's ltr. has been reported to the Post by...

Telegram repeated to East Africa.

According to an Abyssinian report nine Tigreans have been killed on the British side of the frontier by Capt. Barrett's force. If this <sup>report</sup> is correct their countrymen will try to take revenge'. I advise that our forces on the boundary should be increased and that the patrols should be strengthened.
