Sir,

With regard to our varied correspondence of the subject of the Henia Forest; this is to inform you that I have proceeded with the preparation of a scheme for dealing with the timber in the forest. This scheme I shall be ready to place before you if at any time you are prepared to modify the terms of the offer placed before me in December last. As I stated in a former letter, I hold that you are entitled to be informed of any possible modification at any time, as you place the same before any other of those applicants to whom you made your last proposal or who have made application since that date.
