Govt. claim to land at Mombasa.

Inquires as to evidence of Mr. Piggott in the case.

Mr. Bottomley <sup>Mr. Fenjyson</sup> Mr. Read.

It appears that Mr. Piggott has no evidence to give - see Mr. Hall's letter on 4/24/12 - or at any rate, no evidence that is of any use.

How far it is desirable ~~rather~~ as a matter of common courtesy to give Mr. Morrison any inf<sup>n</sup> whatever on this subject, I do not know.

Perhaps in the first place Mr. Fenjyson would advise.

Commission or otherwise to put
in the evidence of Mr Piggott
in this case.

The last I heard was that Mr Piggott was too ill to give
evidence.

I am shortly returning to fact

applied for a commission to take his evidence I should like to know in good time so as to arrange to be present

Commission or otherwise to put
in the evidence of Mr Piggott
in this case.

The last I heard was that Mr Piggott was too ill to give
evidence.

I am strongly desirous to get evidence but if the Crown have applied for a commission to take
