It seems to me that he has established his claim to be regarded as a European.
If the G. D. could find him some efft. outside Ea. it would be a great comfort to everyone concerned - We might admit his European birth then without causing difficulties. Mr. Ea.

the non-European reputation of the result will probably be unsatisfactory all round
if he is suddenly to come

Mr Bottomley

We ^{have} ~~seen~~ notes here ^{at the time of our} ~~of the kind in our~~ but it a proposal for us to do so. Here is a grant of 22: salary of 80 a year. reports (see 26872) not entirely unqualified.

Ever since I have been a member of the Pali Com: I have never known a vacancy ~~to~~ to come before them, for which I should feel disposed to recommend Mr Molloy - or for which the Committee would recommend him. 195

Vacancies ^{young} for which he could be considered are filled locally - or possibly by the C. Agents, as I think it would be well that they should note him up - as he asks on 29/8/13

I think your date will have to fix the question whether Mr. Molloy should or should not be brought under the European Regulations. Without realising it to dispute the Wallace origin I feel somewhat less sympathy with his guidance after seeing the uncle (see my side note to 26872) a strongly coloured individual.

Mr. Molloy

From the C. A. 2 papers on 2966 at up. Mr. Molloy that the little propose that he should be returned to return to R.A. next month.

[I think we must ask the four conf.
to consider the question of European subordinates, re-employment, and other conditions. No doubt there are others who have an equal claim.]

Mr. Robinson.

Mr. J.P. Molloy, a clerk in the Treasury, East Africa Protectorate, is returning from leave and he has been provided with a third class return ticket from England to Mombasa. He called at this office and stated that he wished to return 2nd class from Marseilles and he would pay the difference to the Union Castle Agents in Marseilles, but he requested that we would provide him with a rail ticket to Marseilles.

Can we do this?

Crown Agents.

Mr. Molloy may be given a rail ticket to Marseilles (2nd class, i.e. as I understand, there is no 3rd class) in substitution for that part of his passage ticket which covers the sea journey to Marseilles. The difference in cost will be paid by the Government.

Mr. Molloy is to pay (in fact, has paid) to the Union Castle Co. the difference between the 3rd and 2nd class ticket for the sea journey from Marseilles onwards.

25th August 1913.

The Under Secretary of State,
Colonial Office.

Sir,

With reference to your letter No. 36872/1913 of the 18th instant on the subject of my transfer, I beg to ask you to be good enough to convey to the Secretary of State my thanks for causing my name to be noted on his lists for consideration with other candidates as suitable vacancies occur.

May I crave your special attention to the following matter when I am sure you will admit the justice of my case and my justification for making the appeal to you.

1. I most respectfully venture to bring to your notice that when I sought and obtained a transfer to the Treasury, Mr. Gosling, the Postmaster General, in his remarks to the head of that Department stated that I was an Eurasian, and to this statement I was constrained to submit to the regulations governing the non-European Staff. After lengthened enquiries I produced to the Governor and the Treasurer of the East Africa Protectorate my baptism certificate which clearly showed that both my parents are Europeans. The certificate I showed to Mr. MacNaughten of your department when applying for a transfer to another Colony.

2. The

2. The above facts prove conclusively that I am a not an Eurasian and it is hardly necessary to point out that the different treatment I am subjected to as an alleged Eurasian is repulsive to me as a British Subject and I now wish my proper status as such to be defined.

I shall deem it a great favour if you will give my case your early consideration as I have to return to Africa early in September.

Again thanking you for your good offices and apologising for the trouble I am giving you.

I remain Sir,
Most respectfully,
Your obedient Servant,

J. Molloy

Gentlemen

I am etc to transmit to you for your consideration the acc^d of copies of papers relating to Mr. J. P. Gaskoy, Probate Clerk in the Treasury Office, who has applied for a transfer or promotion from that office.

2. You will observe that the office now is being held by the Dept for Conson as suitable vacancies occur but that Mr. G. is unable to can offer him little prospect of obtaining an app^t.

3. It would be good to consider this official for any suitable ~~office~~ post in which you may be required to select candidates ^{intentionally}
