Sir,

In reply to your despatch No. 374 of the 23rd of April, I have the honour to inform you that instruments and medicines to the value of £150 have been despatched to the Veterinary Officer Jubaland and that as far as is compatible with local conditions Mr. Leese's recommendations will be carried out.

2. Requisition has been made for additional copies of the "Camel Corps Training Manual 1913" and it is hoped that all officers who have the handling of camels will shortly be in possession of this handbook.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your humble, obedient servant,

H. J. ...
at the command of the GOVERNOR.
