I am in receipt of your letter of the 14th of December 1911, and note that it is decided not to proceed further with the matter.

I may add that if Mr. Marshall would like to see me informally and have a conversation upon the problems arising out of the proposed introduction of Trout I should be very pleased to see him either here or in London.

It is possible that I might be able to give him information that would be of service. I shall be here till the 23rd instant and from the 23rd to the 26th inst., at Beaver Lodge, Hamersmith Road, W. If he would care to suggest an appointment he should be pleased to meet him. If he cares to come I should be glad of as long notice as possible as my time is very much occupied.

I am,

Sir,

Your obedient servant,
