DUBLIN, 25th. December. 1933

Sir

40481/1211

Referring to your letter of the 27th. December, I note the Government's view regarding my proposals. I hope, however, to answer this fully at a later date.

With regard to part 2 of your letter, I beg to state that the plan returned on the 2nd. of August last was sent to Sir Percy Girouard in Africa. Last December when His Excellency was in London, he asked me to make out plans according to figures supplied by me. These plans were delivered to Sir Percy Girouard in January in four different parts -

- (1) My proposal as put forward in December.
- (2) Altered plan showing what His Excellency was prepared to consider.
- (3) Complete Machinery - Elevator plan. A
- (4) Cross Section.

Up to the present these plans are still in your possession.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient

W. G. ...
