Secretary

With reference to some recent reports of mine on the above subject, I suggest that the views of Mr. J. H.
Lynch & Mr. W. H. James Esq. on the question of the continuance of this survey be obtained by you in a definite manner, in accordance with recommendations made by me in previous years. —

Mr. A. F. Church is at present in England and favors nothing of this suggestion.

I am

Yours truly,
