Testimonials

Give the name, address, and occupation of the writer of each testimonial. No testimonial should be submitted unless the original is sent to the Inspector, but they will be returned if the original is requested and returns are sent them for record in the Census Office. It is especially desirable that the original should be in the hands of the Inspector, but if it is absolutely necessary that it should be in the hands of another person, the Inspector should be notified.

I have pleasure in stating that Norman Jeune Williams entered Rossall in May 1906, and left in July 1909. During this time his conduct was satisfactory and he attained a fair position in work and games.
