REC'D
27 MAY 1910

The East African Estates Limited offers land situated in British East Africa from 500 to 5000 acres on 99 years lease, suitable for rubber, fibre, cocoa-nut and other tropical products:

Good rainfall, good transport, abundant cheap labour about 350,000 acres to select from

Several hundreds of acres already planted in rubber and fibre, are showing the most promising results, and the total cost of production, including clearance, management, upkeep, and all expenses from the outset to time of yield of rubber and fibre will be less than £5 per acre. 21

The Company have arranged an exhibit (Stand No. 441) at the Royal Agricultural Show to be held at Liverpool June 21st-28th, where a variety of products grown on their estates will be on view.

For terms apply to the General Manager,
Carlton House,
Regent Street,
London, SW.
