My Lord,

Now that Mr. Hollis has taken over the duties of Secretary for Native Affairs, I have the honour to ask that the question, which I raised in a Memorandum before leaving England, may be considered of appointing him to be an Official Member of the Legislative Council.

2. It is the opinion generally that the Secretary for Native Affairs should have a seat on the Council as the legal question is a most important one in this Protectorate, and but little legislation can be carried through without in some way directly or indirectly affecting native interests.

3. In addition Mr. Hollis has a knowledge
