My Lord,

I have the honour to submit a memorial addressed to Your Lordship by the Editor of the East African Standard.

As advised I refused permission for the Visiting Justices' book of the Mombasa Jail to be inspected by the Press and the public.

I am informed that such a course is not usual elsewhere and I cannot say that the attitude of the African Standard of late has been such as to induce me to extend to its Editor any special privileges.

I have the honour to be,
With the highest respect,

My Lord,

Your Lordship's most obedient,
humble servant,

H. M. PRINCIPAL SECRETARY OF STATE
