Mr. Reade

If you are going to do the printing in England it seems hardly worth while to avail ourselves of the offer of the Hambury American line to get the translation done. Otherwise the C. A. G. to have the book translated & 2000 copies printed & sent to the Hambury American line for his translation.

We beg to say the cost of printing an edition in German of the Uganda Railway Guide will be as under 1000 Copies Guide (Translation to be supplied) Crown 4" 96 pp. including paste ups, printed letter press and 4 tones in black bound stiff covers, lithographed back and front, strip of cloth up back.

£79.

If ~~2000~~ copies

£108

We can undertake the printing if the German is set up in Roman type (now largely used) and which is the same as the English edition, but if German text is required we regret we could not undertake the work.

Awaiting the favour of your esteemed commands

(Intld.) C.A.W.
