Transmit copy letter from Mr. Campbell respecting uniform, and desire to learn decision.

(Minister)

Chief Clerk

Li. W. Braille Hamilton

The African Agents Dept enquired previously as to this and I suggested that sending Mr. Campbell an interim answer as the question was under con.

The Assistant Land Officer is not in the post recently approved for the British Lionel (and consequently the whole) uniform.

The Governor was told on 8 August that a further despatch would be addressed to him in due course respecting the wearing of the Protectorate uniform, and will that be settled there must not be any more objection in Mr. Campbell getting it.

He cannot be regarded as Chief Assistant to a head of Dept.

Since the Commissioner for lands, the Law Office and the Registrar have done him; and the question of what should be done - if any - he thinks was argued in the decision on the General question.

City 2/21/07

Ask the C. to tell him that has not intilled to wear a Civil Service Uniform. ^{of that} the question of the ~~cost~~ ^{additional} retention of the ~~old~~ ^{old} ~~rate~~ ^{rate} Uniform is still under consideration ^{in view of the fact} ~~that~~ ^{he should therefore} take no steps ^{to get him} towards getting a uniform replacing his existing one (if any).
