TREASURY CHAMBERS,

26 February 1907.

Sir,

In accordance with the recommendation of the Earl of Elgin contained in Mr. Antrobus's letter (1196/1907) of the 21st instant, the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury sanction the inclusion of £153,000 as a Grant-in-aid for the East Africa Protectorate in the forthcoming Estimate for 1907/8 of the Vote for Colonial Services.

My Lords await the detailed Protectorate Estimates which will no doubt show precisely - with reference to Mr. Antrobus's previous letter (11909) of 21st December last - in what manner it is proposed by the Secretary of State to expend the sum of £153,000 representing the surplus earnings of the Uganda Railway for 1906/7.

I am, Sir,

- Sir,

Your obedient servant,

The Under Secretary of State,
Colonial Office.
