Mr. Read

They have modelled this If you want to keep Mr Mitchell & I think we must in view of the fact that otherwise we shall have an entirely new superior Customs staff except Mr Muir who is under a cloud. We must offer him at least £300 by £10 to £400 per month a taking the place of a European Indsp payable at £200 unpensionable.

Respectfully from M.

Mr Mitchell

I am desirous to to you unofficially, with reference to your letter of the 11th inst, and to inform you the salary which it is proposed to offer you in the event of your securing of the post of Assistant so as to give you an opportunity of inquiring into the matter and sending me a copy of the communication in question should such a course prove necessary.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

Dear Mr. Macnaghtin,

I found your letter of 26th inst with copy of your letter of 18th inst awaiting my return here from Dublin this morning. These Irish Club people must be very careless. They have not forwarded your letter of 18th recd. yet 112

I shall let you have an answer on the subject of the proposed terms early next week.

I hope that will be early enough for you. The matter is rather important and there is a second person living at a considerable distance whom I must take into my consideration.

V. Sincerely Yours.

Ormschell
