Local Agent

Would there, do you think, be any use in you noting this most capable & youthful telegraphist? You will see that he is most unfortunately unemployed in London & would be available for inspection if needed.

W. Macraehten

To be seen in our office here. We are in complete order to get him back to you as soon as possible.

Let me say his name is noted but in view of rare occurrence of vacancies for which he as Lord Privy is very rarely asked to select for vacancies for which he could be considered it is found that very little hope can be held out

My Lord,

In reply to Your Lordship's ~~enclosed~~ despatch of 6th May, I have the honour to transmit herewith as instructed a report by the Postmaster General on Mr. C.G. Durig, lately a Postal Clerk and Superintendent in this Protectorate.

I have the honour to be,

With the greatest respect,

My Lord,

Your Lordship's most obedient,

Humble servant,

R E P O R T.

Mr. Thring is a smart and capable telegraphist. I believe he was enticed away from this Service by an Australian who was himself leaving because he objected to perform work which had formerly been done by Indians.

Except for a tendency, common in South African Colonials, to be constantly "moving on" I have nothing against Mr. Thring and can thoroughly recommend him as useful and industrious Officer.
