Dear Sir Henry
 Dear Sir James
 You know from our official correspondence that Mr. Roosevelt
 will visit E Africa in the spring; and that he is very desirous to avoid ~~interview~~ reporters and photographers as far as he can.
 He realizes that in the future this will scarcely be possible;
 but he hopes that he may at least be left unharassed
 by the Kodak of the

Mr. Hopwood

The U.S. Ambassador tells me that the President's faith by personal Councils look just that his was to be very high under a high state
 character in the parliament they are very scarcely to have to see with the Govt of the country
