Mr. Huntley
Mr. Head

Reply that being under agreement to return to E.A.P. at certain date, it was not competent for him to resign his office in the ordinary way, but that his letter of R.H. is noted as an announcement of his intention to break his contract and that the S.P. is taking steps to fill the vacancy. Assuming for further reason. Add that if it is found by inquiry in the past that he is entitled to any leave or other under his previous agreement, the question re-acceptance in order that it might not be in the position of having waived his breach

As he has raised the question of his leave-salary under his original agreement I do not think we can avoid coming to close quarters now your intention to break your contract of service, and had been in taking the necessary steps to full your action.

It is found as the result of inquiries which have been addressed to the Gov. of franchise which you have incurred by your subsequent breach of
