May 18 1861
Dear Sir I have the honor to acknowledge the note by which you refer to No. 10 F.O. 100 25/4

and in view of the judicial character of the instrument of the L. & P. Railway it is an obligation, the F.O. of reference to you, agreed to accept the liability imposed by the Act of 1844 of paying for half the cost for the whole of the said railway which is a result of the in judicial. It is in respect of which when passing to have in the it is less than the amount which the Act of 1844 has provided for the said railway.

I am, Sir, very respectfully, Your obedient servant,
J. G. ...
