the minutes on it
We have refrained from sending any instructions about this sum of £30,000 until it can be decided finally whether the loan is to be made to Uganda or the G.A.P. It is evidently important that Sir P. G. should be put in funds so that he can begin building for the instruction staff & other local expenditure, so reply by telegraph that he may draw on the O.A.G. of Uganda for the amount, or tell the O.A.G. of Uganda, also by telegraph, that Sir P.

Girouard has been so instructed ^{say} that, if he needs a remittance from this country to meet the demand (as he almost certainly will), or will state how much he needs, the C.A. will be instructed to remit accordingly.
