Rec'd 25 JUN 10

EAST AFRICA PROTECTORATE

No. 346.

(Incls. 3)

Nairobi,

June 4th, 1910.

My Lord,

*46
15216*
 I have the honour to transmit herewith, in continuation of my telegram No. 77 of the 19th ultimo and previous correspondence relating to the Registration of Titles at the Coast, copies of Rules and a Scale of Fees under the Land Titles Amendment Ordinance 1910, with a memorandum by the Crown Advocate.

2. I trust that the measures taken will meet the requirements of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury as laid down in Sir G. H. Murray's letter of April 19th enclosed in Your Lordship's despatch No. 240 of the 2nd ultimo, and that Your Lordship will now see your way to the appointment of additional Survey Staff as stated in your telegram of May 7th.

3. The posts which should be filled are those

THE RIGHT HONOURABLE
 THE EARL OF CREWE, K. G.,
 SECRETARY OF STATE FOR THE COLONIES, DOWNING STREET, LONDON, S.W.

those of Junior Staff Surveyor at £250, 280 by increments of £15, Assistant Junior Staff Surveyor at £120 and Assistant Junior Staff Surveyor at £100. The two latter should be young men just commencing to learn practical work, who would ordinarily pay a premium if taken by a private firm. They should have some knowledge of the theodolite and plane table and be able to use logarithms and understand elementary trigonometry. It is presumed that there must be many just leaving technical colleges who possess such qualifications.

4. Candidates should be informed that they will receive Rs.3/- per diem when travelling locally and House Allowance or Quarters when working in the office.

5. The Junior Assistant Staff Surveyor at £100 will take the place of Mr. C. E. Taylor at present serving in the Cadastral Branch on that salary, whom I would propose to transfer to this particular work at £120.

6. Appointments should be made from September 1st next, as we have only estimated for for seven months work this year, and should be for three years.

I have the honour to be,
Your Lordship's humble,
obedient servant,

H. Ward
GOVERNOR.

The East Africa Post Office Savings Bank

Ordinance 1909.

SODDODD

RULES made by the GOVERNOR of the East Africa Protectorate under the East Africa
Protectorate Savings Bank Ordinance 1909.

Nairobi.

Dated this 10th day of March 1916,

SCOPE OF BUSINESS.

1. The Post Offices at which savings bank business is transacted shall be open for that purpose during such hours and on such days as the Postmaster General with the approval of the Governor shall determine which will be notified by notice posted at the Post Offices and in such other manner as the Postmaster General may prescribe. The business of the Savings Bank shall be conducted by such Officer or Officers of the Post Office as the Postmaster General with the approval of the Governor shall appoint in that behalf.

2. Subject to the provisions of these rules deposits may be made by or in the name of:-

- (a) A man or woman of full age and not under legal disability.
- (b) A married woman.
- (c) A minor of the age of seven years and upwards.
- (d) On behalf of and in the name of children under seven years of age by one of the parents, guardian or a friend. In this case the money shall not be repayable until the child attains the age of 7 years except in the event of death.

(e) On behalf and in the name of insane persons by those appointed to represent them.

(f) By two persons jointly on their own behalf. In this case neither person must have ~~other~~ any account in the East Africa Post Office Savings Bank and the receipt of both persons will be required on re-payment. Deposits may be made by either or both of the depositors.

(g) By one person as Trustee for another person also named in the account. The receipt of both persons will be required on re-payment. A person may act as trustee in any number of accounts and at the same time have an account in his own name.

Deposits shall be received at any Post Office Savings Bank, and not only at that Branch in which the account was originally opened.

Every depositor, on making a first deposit on his own behalf, shall be required to specify his full name, occupation and residence and in the case of natives of Africa or India his father's name with tribe or caste and such further particulars as may be considered necessary for future identification and and make and sign the following Declaration, a copy of which Declaration shall be printed within the cover of every Depositor's Pass Book, to be witnessed by some Officer of the Post Office appointed under these rules or by some person known to such Officer, or by a Clergyman or other Minister of Religion resident in the Protectorate, or by a ~~Magistrate~~ or Justice of Peace. If such Declaration, or any part thereof, shall not be true, the Depositor making the same shall be liable to forfeit and lose all right and title to his deposits. But nothing herein contained shall prevent the Governor, or other Officer appointed by him in that behalf, from foregoing the rights of the Crown to such deposits if in his opinion the Depositor made such declaration believing ~~it~~ to be true.

LIABILITY OF
POSTMASTER GENERAL IDENTIFICATION OF DEPOSITORS.

11. The Postmaster General shall endeavour to prevent fraud and to identify every depositor transacting business with the Post Office Savings Bank; but if any person shall fraudulently represent himself to be a depositor, and if by forwarding the proper notice of withdrawal, and by ~~the~~ representation of a Depositor's Pass Book, and compliance with the Rules of the Department, shall obtain any sum of money belonging to that Depositor the Postmaster General shall not be responsible for the loss thereof.

When the Postmaster General or other Officer transacting Savings Bank business is unable to identify any person representing himself to be a Depositor, he may, notwithstanding that such person may be in possession of a Depositor's Pass Book require, if he thinks fit, from such person a certificate signed by a Magistrate, Justice of ~~the~~ Peace, or by two known and respectable residents of the place in which such person resides, declaring the identity of such person with the Depositor mentioned in the Depositor's Pass Book or in the declaration made pursuant to the provisions of Rule 3.

12. No charge shall be made upon the Depositors for the Pass Books at first supplied to them, or for books issued to them in continuation thereof; but if any Depositor shall lose his book, or permit the same to become in a filthy or undecipherable state, and a new book is necessary, application must be made by him to the Postmaster General by letter, stating the circumstances and forwarding one rupee to pay for the new book, should the application be granted; and the Postmaster General shall, as he thinks fit, issue a new book or return the rupee to the applicant.

13. Every Depositor shall, once in a year, on the anniversary of the day on which he made his first deposit, forward his Pass Book to the General Post Office in a cover to be obtained at any Post Office Savings Bank, in order that the entries in the books of the Postmaster General may be examined and that the interest, if any, due to the Depositor may be inserted in his book.

14. No charge for postage shall be made upon the Depositors for the transmission of their books to the Postmaster General, or for the return thereof to them, or for any application they may have to make for acknowledgement of deposits, or for any application or necessary letter of enquiry respecting the sum deposited by them or replies thereto.

15. Every Pass Book shall be deemed to be the property of the Postmaster General and shall be delivered up by whom the account is closed or otherwise required by the Postmaster General or by an Officer of the Post Office appointed to act on his behalf.

16. In every communication forwarded to the Postmaster General regarding an Account the name of the Office of Issue and the number of the Account as printed on the Depositor's ^{Pass} Book (when such Pass Book shall have been issued) must be furnished.

17. The Postmaster General may on the application of any Depositor transfer Deposits in the Post Office Savings Bank from the name of one person to that of another person, whether the latter has an account or not, but the amount to be transferred to an account must not be such as would cause the total maximum Deposit to exceed a sum of Rs. 7500.

A Depositor desiring to transfer his deposits to another person must apply in writing to the Postmaster General stating whether the intended transferee is or is not already a Depositor in the Post Office Savings Bank. If the transferee is a Depositor the applicant must furnish in his letter the particulars of the Transferee's Account as well as the particulars of the account in which he himself is a Depositor.

Where deposits have been made in the name of one or more persons as "Trustee or Trustees for another person whose name is also entered in the title of the Account, upon the application of such last-named person, the Postmaster General may, in case he should think it just and expedient so to do, remove the name of any Trustee or Trustees from the title of the Account, and may substitute the name of another or other Trustees in the place thereof, or may enter the Account in the name of the person on whose behalf the deposits were made.

Where the name of a new Depositor or Trustee is substituted such Depositor or "Trustee" will make the Declaration required upon the making deposit.

In any case provided for by this rule, the receipt of the persons named in the title of the Account, as altered in manner provided by this regulation, shall be a good discharge to the Postmaster General for any sum standing to the credit of the account.

18. The Postmaster General may enter into an arrangement with any Government Savings Bank Authority in the United Kingdom or in any British Colony, Possession, or Foreign Country for the transfer of sums standing to the credit of Depositors from such a Government Savings Bank to the East Africa Post Office Savings Bank or from the East Africa Post Office Savings Bank to such a Government Savings Bank.

Whenever such an arrangement has been made the Postmaster General may place any amount transferred in pursuance thereof, to the East Africa Post Office Savings Bank to the credit of a Depositor's account in that Bank, but no amount shall be so credited which shall make the total amount standing to the credit of the account exceed the maximum of Rs. 7500 for the time being allowed by the East Africa Post Office Savings Bank Ordinance 1909.

19. In any case of the Transfer of an Account as provided for in Rules 17 and 18 the Postmaster General may decide what deductions or charges shall be made, subject to the limitation that such charge shall in no case exceed the commission which would accrue to the East Africa Protectorate on a Money Order of equivalent value.
