You tel. 29 July - it is meant that Company have neither land, nor rubber on lot.

It has been found to be a misunderstanding somewhere. According to the document (copy in Cap/salt) the area to be leased to the British Company is about 20,000 acres (the area the old ^{agreement} boundary drawn on the assumption that the land is Capath of good bearing rubber & cotton.

If the land is not Capath of good bearing rubber & cotton, the terms of the

Mr. Cox. I have just had a visit from Mr. [unclear] who tells me that he wishes to see the hands of Mr. [unclear] to make a list as not to find in any further extension. I gather that the money which was advanced when the prospectus was issued has been returned & that the volume is practically defunct. [unclear]
