August 5,

Your Excellency,

With reference to Count Metternich's letter of May 11, requesting permission for Mr. F. F. Huetener to kill certain animals in British East Africa for presentation to the Berlin Zoological Museum, I have the honour to inform your Excellency that Sir H. Stewart, His Majesty's Commissioner for the East Africa Protectorate, has expressed his willingness to grant a ^{special} licence in view of the fact that the animals are required for a scientific purpose.

Mr. Huetener should send an application for the permit in question to the above-mentioned officer at Berbera.

I have the honour to be,

With the highest consideration your Excellency's most obedient servant,

lumble servant,

(signed) Laysdore

His Excellency

Count Metternich
