GENERAL POST OFFICE, LONDON.

22 September 1905.

Sir,

With reference to the letter from this office of the 28th ultimo, sent in reply to your letter of the 21st of May last, No. 11647/1905, respecting certain vacant posts in the Telegraph Service of the East Africa and Uganda Protectorates, I am directed by the Postmaster General to enquire you for information of the Secretary of State, the Comptroller and the Postmaster General for the position of the applicant the application has not been received from Mr. William Douglas a temporary Sorting Clerk and Telegraphist at the Falmouth Office,

This officer, who is 28 years of age and unmarried, required his position as an established Sorting Clerk and Tele-graphist in order to enlist in the Royal Engineers, and served with the Telegraph Battalion of that regiment in South Africa and Scotland. He has thus not had four years' established service in this Department; but the Postmaster General considers him, in other respects, a suitable candidate for the post which Secretary of State.
