Draft hereunto after speaking to Mr. Antebus

~~Mr. Antebus~~ Mr. Antebus Mr. [unclear] says Col. Baker this officer's father to day. He is a friend of Lord Alton and is also young lived in [unclear] to [unclear] had to spend [unclear] together about this matter, and he preferred to advise his son to delay pending in his opinion two or three weeks to which I said that

The decision was in accordance with an unvariable rule, but that of course Mr. Lyttleton might see fit to make an exception here.

1897/9

But I think that, if Mr. Lyttleton wishes to do so, we might say that Mr. Baker will be reappointed to his recent class in the East Africa Inspectorate on the occurrence of the first vacancy after the 1st of June 1907 provided that a satisfactory account of his character and conduct is received from the ^{Colonial} ~~Colonial~~ ^{Resident} ~~Resident~~

Please note according to the terms of the British treaty. I presume the 9th of June 1907 is the earliest date at which Mr. Baker could be reappointed.

He should be reappointed there

The ~~case~~ of the ~~year~~ ~~of~~ his ~~reappointment~~ by the ~~British~~ ~~Government~~ ~~should~~ ~~be~~ ~~a~~ ~~high~~ ~~reputation~~
