I think the explanation of the amounts, especially of the fact that no balance exists (as stated in 3248) might have been fuller.

Copy to Mr Bagnall says that he will observe that it was probable that some balance mentioned in column on 6/11/05 was a ...

Account
 of the 1802

With reference to the letter from the Secy of the 1st of Feb<sup>r</sup> I am directed by the Board to transmit to you a copy of the account of the 1st of Feb<sup>r</sup> of your name, the total has S. J. Bagnall, who has been from the Commrs
 of the E.A.S.

2. It appears from the account that
 there is no balance
 remaining to the credit of the estate, and Lord

Elgin regrets that in the letter from the Dep<sup>t</sup> of the 1st of Feb<sup>r</sup> the contrary was stated
to be the case,
~~namely~~
