Mr F. J. Jackson's Claims to Promotion.

Jackson hopes in reference to Somaliland that consideration may be given to his claims to promotion.

(Mistakes.)

Mr Harris. conf: Reply by Mr Harris expressing regret that Lord Elgin has been unable to meet Mr Jackson's visit, as it has been considered advisable to make other arrangements?

I think we might add that it was considered essential to take steps to reduce expenditure in Somaliland & to keep there a man who knew it well. You will remember that I thought it very hard to pass over Jackson but the above arguments were irrefragable.
